

IRISH RECEIVE NEW PLAN FOR SELF RULE

Leaders Sign Appeal of Dominion League Urging People to United Action.

MEMBERSHIP IN LEAGUE

Proposition Held as Solution of Problem—Government Within the Empire.

LONDON, June 27.—Establishment of self-government in Ireland within the British Empire is proposed in a manifesto issued to-day by the "Irish Dominion League" and signed by Sir Horace Plunkett and other Irishmen.

The proposal, it is claimed, is a great advance over any previous proposed solution for the Irish question except that the British connection is maintained. Under this plan Ireland would have virtually the same amount of home rule as if she were an independent republic.

The manifesto points out the disadvantages to which Irish products would be exposed if Ireland was a republic and severed from the British Empire. Mention is made of possible hostile tariffs and it is said that such a position might lose for Ireland her share in any imperial preference which might be established.

Irishmen are urged in the manifesto to unite and to let the British Parliament and people know what they desire. The manifesto then outlines what the political status of Ireland would be under the new scheme.

Ireland, it is declared, would not be represented at Westminster, but would be a member of the League of Nations and of the Imperial conference council or parliament which may be established. Ireland would have complete control of her internal government. The naval and military defence would remain as at present, but no authority but the Irish parliament would have the power to impose compulsory service on Irishmen, although Ireland would agree to make contributions to the naval, military and diplomatic services.

In referring to Ulster, the manifesto says that with Ireland under the status of a dominion, the rights of minorities would be constitutionally recognized in many ways. The Ulsterites are asked to state what special safeguards they demand in the manifesto adding:

"But if our appeal meets with no response the Irish Dominion League will be prepared to show that the Ulster difficulty can be met in the Irish constitution as analogous difficulties have been met elsewhere in the empire."

In addition to Sir Horace Plunkett the signers of the manifesto include Unionist candidates, members of the old Irish party, leading members of the Irish convention of 1917, forty-five Irish peers and baronets, privy councillors, bank and railway directors and lawyers.

BAY STATE SENATE NOT TO HEAR VALERA

House, However, Bids Him Address Members.

BOSTON, June 27.—An invitation to Eamon de Valera to address the House of Representatives next Monday was extended unanimously by that body to-day. The order directs that the Speaker extend to "the zealous and enthusiastic representative of the Irish people a cordial welcome to the Commonwealth of Massachusetts upon his return after many years absence to the country of his birth."

Mayor Quinn of Cambridge also telegraphed an invitation to the Sinn Fein leader to visit that city, "abundant," he said, "with historic revolutionary spots, including the old elm under which Gen. Washington first took command of the American army."

A motion to extend the greetings of the Senate to Prof. de Valera and to invite him to address that body was blocked by President McKnight, who announced that he would insist that the motion be considered in the regular order on Monday. Senator Curran, who introduced the motion, withdrew it, explaining that the Irish leader would have left the city before action could be obtained by the Senate.

Mr. McKnight in a statement to-night said he had added that action be postponed because he desired that Senators receive an opportunity to inform themselves as to whether the Senate was to receive De Valera as the official head of a recognized Government.

"So far as I have been able to learn," he said, "Mr. de Valera has not been recognized by the officials at Washington as representing with authority the people of Ireland. Neither have I been able to learn of any other State in the country that has given official recognition to him."

"To accord formal recognition to one who had not been recognized by our Government at Washington not only might seriously embarrass our Commonwealth but it might embarrass the Government of the United States as well."

POINCARE WARNS OF 'SCRAP OF PAPER'

President of France Sees Signs That Germany Is Not Repentant Nation.

TERMS TO BE FULFILLED

State Dinner to President Wilson and Other Delegates Attended by 250.

PARIS, June 27.—The Allies' duty to be vigilant in enforcing the peace terms with Germany and a tribute to American participation in the war were among subjects discussed by President Poincare at the dinner which he and Mrs. Poincare gave to President and Mrs. Wilson and the delegates to the Peace Conference at the Presidential palace here last night.

President Poincare's speech preceded that of President Wilson, who made a formal farewell to France and the French people and gave as his thought the belief that the work of the Peace Conference had created a friendship that would make for an increasingly more intimate sympathy between the peoples and greater cooperation, economically.

The dinner was held in the great Salle des Fets, which was beautifully decorated with flowers and the flags of all the nations represented by the guests. There were present diplomats and delegates from all countries attending the Peace Conference, marshals of France, members of the Cabinet, former Premiers, Presidents of the Chamber of Deputies and the Senate, former Foreign Ministers and other prominent representatives of Parliament and of the judiciary.

Covers Laid for 250.

President Poincare in giving a toast to President Wilson asked that he be allowed, at the moment when his guest was preparing to leave Europe, to render homage once more to the high spirit of justice in which President Wilson had prepared, with other representatives of the allied and associated Powers, "this great laborious peace in which the justice saved by our victory is going to definitely inscribe its will in favor of repatriation."

After paying tribute to American participation in the war, reviewing the work of the Peace Conference and outlining what still remains to be done, President Poincare said: "The treaties, once signed, must be wholly applied, and persistence on our account will be no less indispensable to their execution. The delegates of the victorious countries have not met during these long months and have not convoked to Versailles the delegates of conquered Germany in order to retain in their hands nothing but a simple piece of paper."

Wants All Clauses Observed.

"We want all of us, as you do, Mr. President, that this peace be not vain words; that it be not a fugitive hope and that it be not a passing flash of joy appearing for one evening in blood-stained Europe. We want, as you do, that the Society of Nations shall become a beneficent reality. We want, as you do, that all the clauses to which our enemies are going to subscribe be loyally observed."

"The disposition shown by violations in advance of a treaty that one is going to undertake to respect makes it our duty to watch carefully to see that criminal hands do not rekindle sooner or later the conflagration which we have smothered."

"German ships sunk by their crews, French flags burned and demonstrations before the new Polish frontier are not signs of repentance. We must remain together, firmly united, to gather the fruits of the victory that we obtained together."

President Poincare concluded by raising his glass and proposing, in honor of President and Mrs. Wilson, a toast to the immortality of Franco-American friendship and the indestructible union of the allied and associated Powers.

WILL NOT WAIT ON SENATE.

Blockade of Germany to Be Lifted Before Ratification.

LONDON, June 27.—According to a statement made in authoritative quarters, the blockade of Germany will not be lifted until the Powers concerned have ratified the peace treaty.

It is understood, however, that owing to the delay of ratification inevitable in America, the Powers have agreed that President Wilson's signature shall be regarded as ratification, pending that of the American Congress.
